There was some reselling of stocks bought yesterday on account of reports of the foreign bankers' action on cotton bills of ladding that were not horne out by authoritative advices. The banks report a heavy outgo of currency for the week. Southern points making particularly heavy demands, evidently to prepare for any possible outcome of the cotton bill dispute.

Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $3.286000. United States bonds were unchanged in the bid price on call. Total sales of stocks for the day, 372,500 shares.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, September 22.—There was a further advance in the cotton market during to-day's early trading, which carried prices into new high ground for the movement, but later offerings became heavier and the market cased off, closing steady at a net less of 30 points on September and of 20T points on later positions. The opening was steady at a decline of 8 points on September, while other months were 2 points wigher to 3 points lower. September was influenced by scattering liquidation, said to result from the circulation of notices estimated at about 5,600 bales, while other near months sympathized somewhat with the weakness of the spot position, and late deliveries showed the effect of steady cables, or a renewal of bull support. September continued relatively easy, but the general

Virginia Trust Company

Virginia's Oldest and Strongest Trust Company

Cash Capital, $1,000,000.00

Readers of Trust Company journals during the past three months have been impressed with an unprecedented increase in the number of Trust Company appointments as Executor, Trustee and Guardian under the terms of wills made by men of wealth and large affairs.

Where desired, this Company will assist, through its counsel, in the difficult task of drawing a will, when named as Executor or Trustee. Interviews and correspondence, which are always confidential, are invited.

This company does not handle commercial business, but solicits inactive accounts from individuals, firms and corporations, upon which 3 per cent. interest is allowed on daily balances, and where the balance amounts to $500.00 or more, the interest is credited at end of each month.

servatism are widely in evidence and reflected in small but frequent, rather than large or confident buying. One really favorable underlying feature is the apparent absence of large stocks of goods in primary or secondary hands.

Reports from leading industries are of repression in operations. Basic pig from is weaker. Railway buying is still conspicuous by its comparative absence. In the Eastern leather trade some sole leather tanners are operating machines below capacity, and Eastern shoe manufacturers report conservatism marked in buying. In textile lines curtailment is still in evidence. Staple lines meet with fairly steady demand. Jobbers' and manufacturers' stocks are reported lighter than usual. Some makes of gingfor which prices have been announced, have sold quite freely. In the woelen goods trade political agitation is claimed to be holding back future demand.
